May 20, 2017

1. How might we tend to place personal comfort and safety above what God may want to do in you and through you?
2. What risks might God be calling you to take?
3. Have you ever tried doing something risky for God, only to be discouraged from doing it by another Christian? Have you ever been that person who tried to discourage someone from doing something risky for God?
4. What would it look like to do incredible things for God, but in a way where God gets all the glory and attention, rather than you? Cite some examples/passages from Scripture.
5. Read Luke 14:12-14. Who are the people in your life who might fit Jesus' description here? What needs do they have? What do you have that can be used by God to bless them? How can you begin doing this?
6. Read Acts 2:42-47; 4:32-37, John 13:34-35 and I John 3:11-24. Describe what you gathering of Christians would look like if you began to live the type of obsessed Christian that characterized the early church. Try to be both practical and imaginative.
7. How can you join together with and commit to the other Christians in your life so that you can help one another live this type of devoted life?
