April 15, 2017

1. As you reflect back on this study, how would you say your thoughts, emotions, and actions have been changed?

2. If you have experienced positive changes like greater obedience to God and deeper intimacy with Jesus, describe what it has been like to see those changes in your life.

3. Have you ever had a “mountaintop experience” that faded or made a radical commitment that you failed to follow through on? What stopped you?

How can we partner with other Christians to make this and other Bible studies just another “mountaintop experience.” What would this look like practically if you worked toward this goal with someone else?

4. What gifts and talents do you have and how are you using them for God’s glory? Read Romans 12:308 and I Corinthians 12:4-14.

How does your spiritual gift fit with the other gifts in the church?

5. Because of your spiritual gift, what might God be asking you to do? Read John 14:15, 21 and discuss how these passages relate to doing your spiritual gifts.

What steps do you need to take in order to start obeying Jesus?

6. As you think through the study, what do you think is the most important change that you can commit yourself to making?
