If possible, read the book of I Peter 4:7-9 from several translations. For additional insight and study go to www.studylight.org.

1. The opening of verse 7 has an ominous tone, yet in spite of the fact that “the end of all things is near” what admonitions does Peter encourage in verses 7-9?

Differentiate between those that are personal and those that are “public” in regard to how we are to treat others.

Why are these traits important if the end of all things is near?

2. Why do you think these verses follow Peter’s discussion on suffering? What is the correlation here?
3. Why do we need to be “clear minded and self-controlled so that we can pray”?
4. What does it mean to “love others deeply”? Cite other verses.
5. Why would Peter tell you not to grumble when offering hospitality?
6. Looking over this list of attitudes and actions, what area(s) need improvement and what steps will you take this week to improve?
