If possible, read the book of Luke 2:8-20 from several translations. For additional insight and study go to www.studylight.org.

1. Discuss how the account of Jesus's birth announced by the angels might be different if it happened today?

During Bible times a shepherd was looked down on, yet a group of them were chosen to receive the message of Christ's birth. In our time who might be the most unlikely group to receive the news and why?

How might the news of Jesus's birth be received today?

2. Discuss why this message is "good news of great joy". See also Luke 2:32-33; Matthew 1:21-23; Galatians 4:4-5.
3. What Old Testament passages prophecy about the birth of the Christ? With these prophecies, why do you suppose the religious leaders weren't looking?
4. What does verse 14 mean to you?
5. This year how are you choosing to express your praise for the gift of His Son?

Next week: Matthew 1:21-23
