

Read Psalm 96:1-13, if possible, from several translations.
For additional insight go to www.studylight.org and www.gotquestions.org.

1. What is this new song we are to sing? Where else in Scripture is a new song sung?
2. How is all the earth involved in singing to the Lord a song of praise?
3. What does it mean to “praise His name?”

How do we proclaim His salvation every day?

List 5 works of God that you can sing His praise to the nations.

4. Why is God worthy of praise? Discuss other passages where we see praise for His glory, power, majesty.

What does it mean to praise His glory?

What does it mean to praise His power?

What does it mean to praise His majesty?

What does ascribe mean and what is it that we ascribe to Him?

5. How do we “worship the Lord in the splendor of His holiness?”
6. How does this psalm speak of the sovereignty of God?
7. With so much chaos in the world, how is the world firmly established?
8. Read verse 13. What reason do we have to give God praise?